The Bulletin.

Norwich, Saturday, Feb. 20, 1909.

The Bulletin should be delivered everywhere in the city before 6 a. m.
Subscribers who fail to receive it by that time will confer a favor by reporting the fact to The Bulletin Co.

THE WEATHER.

Forecast for Today.

Forecast for New England: Rain in south, rain or snow in north portion Saturday; somewhat colder in southwest portion. Sunday generally fair; somewhat colder in central and east Maine; brisk to high shifting winds, becoming west.

Predictions from the New York Herald: On Saturday cloudy weather and fresh variable winds will prevail, with rain or snow and slight temperature changes; and Sunday partly cloudy and colder weather.

GREENEVILLE.

New Officers for Entertainment Committee of Temperance Society—New Secretary for Military Band—Notes.

At a meeting of the entertainment committee of the Father Mathew T. A. society this week Joseph A. Donnelly was elected chairman of the committee in the place of Patrick P. Shaw, who tendered his resignation. The members of the entertainment committee are:
Joseph A. Donnelly, chairman; Patrick P. Shaw, secretary; R. F. Shea, C. J.
Downes, M. J. Carroll, Miles E. O'Sullivan.

The committee is making plans for an entertainment of some sort in the next few months, but whether it will be in the form of a minstrel show or in some other form has not yet been decided. A very successful minstrel show was given two years ago by the society, and a number of the members are in favor of arranging one this winter. There is certainly considerable available talent in the club, more now than two years ago, by the addition of a large number of new members.

The anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew, April 10, will also probably be made a memorable occasion.

Notes.

Thomas Spens of Bowtell avenue is recovering, after a two weeks' illness with rheumatism.

Mrs. Joseph McNeerney of Newport, N. Y., is the guest of her sister, Mrs.
O'Donnell of Fifth street.

James Ward, the well known butcher of Central avenue, has returned to work, after a brief illness.

William E. Wilson has returned to his home, on Thirteenth street, after a week's visit in Stonington.

Principal C. H. Robeson of Prospect street left Friday to spend a few days at his home in Palmer, Mass.

Sidney Kniffin has returned to his home, on Fourth street, after visiting his mother in New Haven.

Miss Lillian Anderson of North Grosvenordale, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. William A. Lund of Prospect street.

Washington's birthday will be observed at a holiday at the Greenville grammar school, and there will be no session.

At a meeting of the Greenville Military band Thursday evening William Andrews was made the secretary of the organization.

Owing to the scarlet fever outbreak at Meridenburg, Pa., John McWilliam returned to his home, on Prospect street, Thursday night to await the reopening of the school.

George Hoxley of Hartford was visiting friends in Greenville Friday and left for Hartford Saturday morning.
He was formerly a conductor in this city, but has since been working in a rubber factory in Hartford. Several months ago he scalded his hand and has not yet been able to return to work.

YANTIC HAPPENINGS.

Pupils Pleased with Bulletin's Lincoln Medal—Guild Gives Supper and Entertainment.

Many words of appreciation are expressed by local pupils who, for writing commendable letters in the recent Lincoln contest, received a medal of appreciation.

Supper by Woman's Guild.
On Thursday afternoon and evening at the home of Mrs. Howard Blahod the woman's guild of Grace Episcopal church held a most successful supper and entertainment. There was a large attendance and a good sum was realized from the supper. This will be the last supper held after Lent.
Miss May Rose O'Leary has been spending a few days as the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. McHale of Oakland avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Prink have returned from North Stonington, where they attended the funeral of Ira D.
Main.

Lewis Simpson has moved from Meeting House hill to West Town street, Norwich Town.

Nathan Bushnell of Taftville has his gasoline engine at work saving wood for J. W. Prink.

Niantic—C. N. Curtis of Niantic has taken a large contract of sawing ties and lumber for J. Heckwith of Niantic in company with C. H. Cone.

THE GARDE PARTY A BIG HIT

Given a Most Successful Presentation at Broadway Theater —Songs were Finely Sung and Every Feature Passed Off Smoothly Amidst Much Applause.

Something out of the line of amateur performances given here on previous occasions, The Garden Party, at the Broadway theater on Friday evening, was decidedly meritorious in every particular, the entire play passing off smoothly and to the credit of all the participants, as well as to those who directed it.

The theater was crowded, every seat, including the boxes, being taken, and the play provided excellent entertainment. It was given by the Open House and Hale clubs, directed by Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Rodenbaugh, who have been drilling the participants for the past month. The songs and dances were all of a high order, and the acting was of a high order, and the play provided excellent entertainment. It was given by the Open House and Hale clubs, directed by Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Rodenbaugh, who have been drilling the participants for the past month. The songs and dances were all of a high order,
